A+ CAREER APPAREL LAUNCHES EXCITING NEW WEBSITE

Burlingame, CA (October 31, 2009) – A+ Career Apparel, a custom manufacturer and in-stock supplier of career uniforms and corporate casual apparel, has recently launched an exciting and new website. The fresh look and feel of the website proves that A+ Career Apparel continues to emerge as a leader in the career-wear industry.

The easy-to-use and informative website, www.apluscareerapparel.com, highlights A+ Career Apparel's custom design and manufacturing abilities, vast assortment of products, uniform and e-commerce solutions and fulfillment programs, earth-friendly initiatives, and the history of the company. As a vertical manufacturer, A+ Career Apparel specifically emphasize various value-added services, such as “direct-to-you” cost savings, total cost of acquisition (TCOA), embroidery and decorating abilities, and much more.

As their reputation grows as one of the industry leaders, A+ Career Apparel consistently enhances the quality and depth of their product lines and value-added services.

Vince Knoss, Marketing Director at A+ Career Apparel, states that “Our Company can create, manufacture and fulfill the branding needs of our customers. By being the manufacturer, we understand the equity behind our clients' brand, and go to great lengths to protect its uniqueness.”

Knoss continues, “Whether it's a fresh new website, expanding our earth-friendly initiatives, or simple phone calls to customers for a friendly chat,

A+ Career Apparel never stops implementing fun new ways to make our customers feel good. We constantly strive to eliminate barriers and make doing business with us easier and easier everyday. A+ Career Apparel is truly dedicated to our customers' success.”
